

Flag Education - POW/MIA Recognition “Operation Bring Them Home”

MAY 1ST

Loyalty Day Celebration: Do your neighbors, friends, or family display their flags regularly? Show your appreciation by giving them a citation. Frame it and take photos of them with it. Share the pictures on Facebook or submit them to your local newspaper.

MAY 10TH

Celebrating Female Veteran Mothers on Mother’s Day
Do you know any female veteran mothers? Today is the perfect occasion to honor them, express our gratitude, and shower them with love. You can do this in various ways, such as sending a heartfelt card, gifting them a flag, or finding another meaningful way to show your appreciation.

MAY 25TH

Memorial Day: Engaging Our Youth in Ceremonies
Most of us take part in a Memorial Day ceremony. This is a wonderful opportunity to involve our youth. Reach out to a local Boy or Girl Scout troop and teach them the proper way to place flags at the headstons.

JUNE 14TH

Flag Day: On this day, we proudly display and honor our flag. Have you considered gifting a flag to someone who doesn’t have one? This would be a wonderful opportunity to do so.

250TH BIRTHDAY AMERICA

Most towns across the U.S. have begun preparations for their grand birthday party celebrations. This is an excellent opportunity for you and your auxiliary to not only highlight your town but also showcase your VFW. Do what you believe in and believe in what you are doing. Get involved!

Flag Education

Organize efforts to educate people on flag etiquette. Topics you should educate people on include folding the Flag, respectful disposal of the Flag and displaying the Flag.
Organize classes on the importance of the Flag history and meaning of the Flag..
